NO. 82

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

An effort is being made to start a bank at Burnside.

The Madison circuit court sent a boy to the House of Reform at its present term.

Solomon Griffin, living in Pulaski but close to the Lincoln line, died last week.

J. Speed Smith, Jr., of Richmond, will be appointed a clerk in the census bureau.

Gov. Bradley very properly declined to pardon Dan Curry, who killed John Corley at Corbin.

Representative Boreing has recommended Nannie Bingham for the Tom's Creek, Bell county, postoffice.

A local option election is to be held in the Glades precinct in Pulaski on Jan. 27 and it is already waxing warm.

A contract to build a bridge across the Cumberland at Pineville has been awarded an Indiana company by Bell county.

The court of appeals affirmed the decision of the Whitley circuit court against John King given 21 years for manslaughter.

In the award of the Southern star routes Saturday J. M. Boreing & Co., of London, got $14. Ed Parker also got a good slice of them.

T. N. Edwards, Davison's postmaster at Lawrenceburg, was arrested at Monroe City, Mo., for embezzling postoffice funds, and brought to Louisville for trial.

The Somerset Paragon doesn't take kindly to the pardon of John P. Colyer for the murder of A. J. Catron and says it will not result in good for the county.

General Manager Murphy, of the Cincinnati Southern, has appointed H. M. Waite superintendent of the Cincinnati division with headquarters at Lexington, and W. M. Maguire superintendent of the Chattanooga division with headquarters at Somerset.

R. D. Lakes and Ed House, of Madison county, who were arraigned in the United States district court at Covington, charged with using the mails for a scheme to defraud, confessed judgment in two cases and were fined $100 each. The other indictments were fled away.

The intercollegiate declamatory contest held at Richmond between Kentucky University, State College, Kentucky Wesleyan and Central University was won by A. H. Rowell, of Pine Bluff, Ark., representing Central University, whose subject was "One Niche the Highest."

In a general fight in Corbin between Floyd and Ed Chadwell and City Marshal Elijah Bingham and his deputies, Henry and Hartford, over the Chadwells shooting their guns, and the marshal and his deputies trying to arrest them. Hartford was shot and killed. John Shotwell was also shot through the thigh. The militia was called out at midnight and they surrounded the house of Chadwell, and at daylight Sunday sent John Steele and John Gilliam, two members of the company, to the house to see if Floyd and Ed Chadwell would surrender without further trouble. They surrendered to Steele and Gilliam, but when Marshal Bingham went up to the house they wanted to kill him, and it was all Steele and Gilliam could do to keep them from killing Bingham. The Chadwells are from Clay and said to be very bad men.

HUSTONVILLE.

Last week was ideal hog killing weather, and many took advantage of it.

George Hurn, of Moreland, who accidentally shot himself in the foot while hunting, is having quite a serious time. Blood poisoning has set in and the doctors fear amputation will be necessary.

D. M. Lipps & Son, proprietors of the Hustonville Roller Mills, are kept busy both day and night, and then can not fill all of their orders.

The C. W. B. M. Society met with Mrs. James Frye Saturday afternoon. Miss Bertha Morse has returned from a pleasant visit at Somerset, and brought as her guest Mrs. Frank Brinkley. Miss Minnie Woods is the guest of relatives in Garrard. Miss Lula Edgington has been quite ill for several weeks. Rev. Hagan, of Lexington, spent several days with J. Roy B. Rose, and preached at Turnersville Sunday. A. L. Carpenter, of Covington, came over to hunt, and is the guest of A. J. Adams. Miss Ann Ellis, of Stanford, is visiting Miss Ariadne Wright.

RED HOT FROM THE GUN.

We the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of New Ark. Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Blisters, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

Gen. Gatacre, in command of the British expedition in Cape Colony, attacked the Boer positions at Stormberg on Saturday, and was badly defeated, being compelled after three hours of desperate fighting to retreat. Of his 2,000 men, 634 are missing or wounded.

LANCASTER.

Postmaster West and others will attend the inauguration.

Mr. James Maret, the brilliant ex-editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal, was in our city on Friday.

H. T. Logan says that the republicans got the certificate, but that we will get the blue ribbon after the contest.

Only chairs inside the bar at the court house will cost $1. Friday, 15th, when Gov. Bob Taylor lectures. The main part of the house will be reserved at 75 cents, as it has been heretofore.

Our young men will give a hop on Thursday night in the large store room in the Owsley block, which is nearing completion and which will be occupied by the Logan Dry Goods Co. Saxton's band has been engaged and a good time is anticipated.

John A. Royse bought of O. G. Speake a house and lot on Danville Avenue at $1,300. H. Clay Hamilton purchased the Tillett property on Richmond Avenue for $1,100. J. I. Hamilton is buying and shipping horses to the Southern market.

I have needed backbone for some time and I now have an abundance, as my neighbors have kindly remembered me, since hogs have been killed, by giving me bones and sausage. I am thankful to them and would name them, if there were not so many.

Miss Bessie Bush has returned from Indiana, where she has been visiting relatives. Miss Louise Park, of Middlesboro, will visit Misses Annie and Mabel Royston next week. E. W. Norris guessed that the large candle in the Blue Grass Store would burn 140 hours, and he won the handsome chamber set.

Master Jesse, 20 months old, and only child of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beazley, died on Saturday night, and a long procession followed the remains to Lancaster cemetery on Sunday afternoon. He was a bright child and the idol of the household. Our citizens extend sincere condolence to the bereaved parents.

While in Frankfort Senator Farris bought a return ticket over the L. & N. railroad to Junction City from a Pulaski man for $1. It was good to Dec. 13th and bore the stamp of C. P. Atmore, G. P. A., Louisville, Ky., which shows that it must have been issued there and mailed, as it is claimed that many were done, and yet the L. & N. claims to be out of politics.

I regret that space will not allow the giving of the full text of Miss Mosher's lecture on temperance at the Christian church on Sunday afternoon. It was dignified and argumentative rather than abusive, and proved conclusively that the liquor traffic is destroying our government, by making inroads on the church and school, the sources of the virtue and the intelligence of all nations.

W. A. Hiatt settled with the railroad for $37.50 and dismissed a suit in the circuit court that was pending for damages on account of the burning of a barn. Anderson Sutton, colored, pleaded guilty to the charge of house-breaking and was given four years in the penitentiary. The case of Smith vs. Ballard, for $20,000 damages, was continued. G. B. Swinebroad was appointed official stenographer for Garrard circuit court. Civil cases were heard Friday and Saturday and court adjourned until Tuesday.

The democrats have elected republican State officials on the face of the returns. The republicans should not exult. The 14,050 who voted for Brown and the 25,000 democrats, who voted for Taylor, deserve all the credit, and it is hoped that they will get enough of republicanism. If Taylor serves the whole term the democratic party in this State had as well disband. Tissue ballots and soldiers at the polls furnish sufficient grounds for a contest and it should be instituted at once. We should not submit to republican fraud until every inch of the ground has been contested.

The Southern Railway has arranged rate of fare and one third for the round trip for the Christmas and New Year holidays. Tickets will be sold by all agents Dec. 22d, 23d, 24th, 25th, 30th, 31st, and Jan. 1st, with return limit Jan. 4th, 1900. For Schools and Colleges, holiday rates will be effective Dec. 15th to 21st, inclusive, final limit Jan. 4th, 1900. The special arrangement for students is effective upon certificates from the Principals of Schools and Colleges. For further information, rates, etc., apply to nearest agent of the Southern railway or connecting lines. W. A. Turk, Gen'l Pass. Agt., Washington, D. C. Wm. H. Taylor, Asst. Gen'l Pass. Agt., Louisville, Ky.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25 cents per box. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

Charles P. Howell, chief engineer of the ill-fated Maine, is dead in New York.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

Rev. Dodds, of the Stanford Colored Methodist church, baptized 12 and Rev. Bolling, of the Baptist church, two converts Sunday.

A business meeting will be held at the Stanford Christian church at 10:30 Sunday and all the members are requested to be on hand.

Rev. Robert Henderson, a Methodist divine at Charleston, W. Va., killed his wife when he found her untrue and insisted on her folks letting him preach her funeral.

Just ninety and nine colored sinners had their meanness washed out of them in the workhouse pond at Lexington Sunday, Rev. Anderson doing the job with neatness and dispatch.

The members of the Christian church of Crab Orchard are requested to be present next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of calling a pastor. J. G. Livingston, Evangelist.

The Western Recorder, one of the best of the denominational papers, celebrated its 75th anniversary last week by appearing in a handsome colored cover. The first issue of the paper appeared in 1824.

Rev. Ira Parlin was almost unanimously called to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Waynesburg for another year. E. B. Caldwell was unanimously elected superintendent of the Sunday school for the 18th year.

In 1776 there were 309 Baptists in Kentucky. Now, according to the Baptist year book for 1899, 256,907, 183,052 of whom are white people. Texas, out of a membership of 315,281, has only 182,725 white members. There are more white Baptists in Kentucky than any other State in the union.

Judge Scott, of Omaha, has had four prominent preachers cited to appear before him for contempt because they had tried to influence public sentiment against the children of an old soldier being awarded to him by the court, and says: "I would not trade one of the soldiers for a whole world full of such hypocrites. If these ministers should meet Christ, He would require that they be introduced by some person of respectability before He would speak to them."

REPORT OF DISTRICT MEETING.

The teachers of the Stanford district held their annual meeting Saturday, 9th, at 10:30 A. M.

Supt. Singleton called the house to order and announced the opening song. Miss Myrtle Hughes presided at the organ. Rev. J. B. Crouch followed with Scripture reading, prayer and a few words of counsel and encouragement.

Mrs. M. J. Cochran presided with her usual dignity and ability, and conducted the meeting according to the program previously announced.

Supt. Singleton gave the teachers a cordial welcome in a few well chosen words. Prof. Grinstead, who is always willing, ready and capable, made a short response.

The subject of Reviews and Examinations, introduced by Miss Nora Phillips, brought forth a spirited discussion that was both helpful and interesting. Prof. Grinstead opposed written examinations, and advocated daily reviews and oral examinations occasionally without giving the class previous warning. Prof. Winfrey thinks written examinations helpful as a training in expression. Prof. Ogg endorsed daily reviews and monthly written examinations. Prof. Davis would like to have written examinations, provided all temptation to cheat could be removed. The meeting adjourned at 12 for dinner.

The afternoon session was opened with music conducted by Misses Hughes and Peyton. Little George Newland added a ray of sunshine by a recitation entitled "Don't."

By request Prof. Grinstead read an interesting paper, in which he made the ideal teacher loftier, and the burden of responsibility heavier. His definition of "teach" is "to cause to know."

Miss Lillie Peyton favored the audience with a well rendered solo.

Prof. Davis was next on the program. His subject was "Psychology," which he handled with much skill.

Owing to the lateness of the hour several subjects were omitted from the program. Prof. Ogg closed with prayer.

Among the visitors present, who added much to the interest of the meeting, were: Profs. Grinstead, Danville; Ogg, Middleburg, and Davis, Hustonville.

ANNIE MCKINNEY, Sec'y.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Penny, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

Thirty-two miners were killed by an explosion of fire damp in a mine at Carbonade, Wash.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Brown didn't carry a precinct in Kentucky.

Owing to a lack of funds the State guard will not be represented at the inauguration today.

Judge Pryor resigned as election commissioner yesterday and it is said that Judge John A. Fulton will likely succeed him.

Mitchell county, N. C., hasn't a single Negro in it and strange to say the county gives the largest republican majority in the State.

All the democratic candidates below lieutenant governor have decided to contest. Their cases will be heard before the commission.

For the first time in the history of the country, the speakership has crossed the Mississippi. In fact, only three Western men have ever held the coveted honor.

Two democrats will contest for seats in the Kentucky Senate and 10 in the House, while one republican will try to get a seat in the Senate and seven in the House.

Speaker Henderson named the House committee on rules, to consist of the speaker and Messrs. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania; Grosvenor, of Ohio; Richardson, of Tennessee, and Bailey, of Texas.

The Louisville Times states the case truthfully and epigrammatically as follows: The State election commissioners have reached the 2 to 1 conclusion that they are merely a bump on a political log.

In response to the election board's charge that his action in calling out the troops in Louisville on election day was reprehensible, Gov. Bradley gives his reasons and says that he was justified in doing as he did.

Governor-elect Nash, John R. McLean and James Kilbourne, who ran against McLean for the democratic nomination for governor, are to be initiated into the Columbus, O., Lodge of Elks on the same night, Dec. 20.

The official election returns show that Goebel got 27,807 votes more than Hardin and Taylor 21,278 more than Bradley. They also show that the 8th Congressional district went 94 republican, although it gave Gilbert a majority of 841.

How are the mighty fallen! William C. Owens once the idol (?) of the democracy of the Ashland district playing in the back yard of the republican log cabin! What we'll do to him on the 18th will be an elegant plenty.—Midway Clipper.

The House committee on rules decided that the general debate on the financial bill should begin yesterday and continue till Friday, with debate under the five-minute rule Saturday and a vote the following Monday. The bill provides for a gold standard.

Congressman Oney, of Virginia, with an eye to business for his tobacco raising constituency, has introduced a bill providing that the weekly rations for each enlisted man in the army and navy shall include 1 1/2 ounces of smoking tobacco and two ounces of chewing tobacco.

It is probable that Senator Goebel will again be honored by election as president pro tem. of the Senate, and also chairman of the democratic caucus, unless a contest for governor is decided upon, when it might be deemed best to have some one else serve in those capacities.

It is said that Gen. Dan Collier will hold on as adjutant general under Taylor. M. H. Thatcher, assistant attorney general, will continue under Pratt and McKenzie Todd be Taylor's private secretary. J. G. Forrester is slated to succeed C. W. Lester as State Inspector.

The joint democratic legislative caucus in Virginia nominated Hon. Thomas S. Martin to succeed himself as United States Senator. The vote stood Martin 103; Gov. Tyler 27. The incumbents of the offices of treasurer, secretary of the Commonwealth, auditor, second auditor, superintendent of the penitentiary, superintendent of the public printing and railroad commissioner were renominated.

KINGSVILLE.—Edward W. Creighton, who was hurt in jumping from a moving train last week, has almost recovered from his injuries. Claude Upton and Herbert Gann, of Somerset, were here last week to make some repairs on the telephone line. Claude Pennybacker returned Saturday from a few days' visit to his sister Mrs. Dineen at Somerset. John Howe went to Lexington last week and stood an examination in telegraphy. Mack Williams, a former night operator of this place, has accepted a position on the Illinois Central. Mr. Dunn and family of Grant county, have taken possession of their new home, the Roy property that was, and although we regret to lose the Roes, who were the best of neighbors and liked by every one, we welcome our new neighbors.

Four men were seriously hurt in a fight over 60 cents near Clarksville, Tenn.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - DEC. 12, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

THE election board in a lengthy opinion, which was promulgated Saturday, Senator C. B. Poyntz dissenting, held that it was simply an adding machine to find out who got the most votes according to the returns, and declare the result, with no power under the law to go behind them or to take anything whatever into consideration but the simple figures presented to them, and accordingly awarded the certificates of election to Taylor and his crowd. If this opinion of the law is correct it is singularly defective and worse than its bitterest enemies declared it and should straightway be either repealed or amended. Senator Poyntz taking the sensible view that law is founded on right and justice, said "I believe that the law does not require the giving of certificates of election to candidates who are shown by the returns before this board to have been defeated. I am unwilling to certify fraud and to turn Kentucky over to the control of the bayonet, Gatling gun and the fraudulent tissue ballots. I therefore respectfully decline to join with my colleagues in granting certificates to the republican candidates, and believe certificates of election should be issued to the democratic candidates." Messrs. Pryor and Ellis say in their opinion that if the board had judicial powers, the use of troops on election day, the interference of any judge by injunction to compel election officers to certify incorrect returns and the use of tissue ballots would be denied the sanction of law and that before the proper tribunal they will be treated. In other words while they think that under the law they could not do otherwise than give the certificates to the republicans they are firmly of the opinion that they are not entitled to them.

There is talk of a contest, but it has not been fully determined upon, a meeting of the central and executive committees having been called to meet at Frankfort Thursday to finally decide. In case of contest, that for governor and lieutenant governor will be before the Legislature and can not be held before about the 10th of February. For the other offices the contest will be before the election board and the result is easy to forecast, taking their opinion into consideration. It is said that Judge Pryor will resign and possibly Capt. Ellis also, in which event Senator Poyntz will appoint their successors. The republicans were much more surprised than the democrats at the decision of the election board for they expected to be done by as they would have done under similar circumstances. When the news was received here, the dispatch was read wrong to a republican, who has taken great interest in the matter, "Goebel gets the certificate," he was told, when with an oath he replied he knew the scoundrels would give it to him. The democrats are just a little too honest, especially when they have such an adversary as the republican party, which has stole everything from a presidency to seats in Congress. At this very time an effort is being made to unseat Mr. Gilbert, although he had over 800 majority, and it will likely be successful, since the party in power has no conscience and no regard for right. We've got to learn a thing or two or the republicans will continue to steal themselves into power.

THE official vote as canvassed by the State board gives Goebel 191,331 votes and Taylor 193,714, plurality for the latter 2,383. Brown received 14,650; Blair (Pop.), 3,038; Wallace (Pro.), 2,346; Schmutz (Soc. Labor), 615. The total vote cast for all candidates for governor was 405,094. Marshall's plurality for lieutenant governor is 2,511; Pratt's for attorney general 1,435; Sweeney for auditor 2,376; Day for treasurer 2,225; Powers for secretary of State 1,916; Burke for superintendent of public instruction 2,975 and Throckmorton for commissioner of agriculture 1,930.

OLD JOHN M. PALMER, who is a greater traitor even than John Young Brown, rises in his grave clothes to say that he will not support Bryan, if he is nominated, and that his nomination would mean a loss of Illinois by 100,000 votes. Palmer ought to lie still. His opinions and his acts are not of public consequence, for nobody cares an iota for them.

ALTHOUGH Secretary Gage figured a surplus of $40,000,000 for the current year, President McKinley made no suggestion of a reduction of war taxes. The republicans will find some way to get rid of the surplus and we fear the odious stamp and other war taxes have come to stay as long as this generation does.

THE Corbin Campus managed by W. B. Hudson and edited by G. E. Hancock, has been launched on the uncertain sea of journalism, especially as it relates to the mountains. It is neatly printed and the paper starts promisingly.

W. S. TAYLOR will be inaugurated governor of Kentucky today, which will mark the darkest hour in the State's history. Uncouth, unlettered and unlearned, with a repulsive personality and the manners of a monkey, with no idea above a narrow minded partisanship and no claim to more than a certain kind of shrewdness peculiar to his class, he is as unfit as he could possibly be to occupy the exalted position of governor of a great State. Though a bitter partisan, Gov. Bradley was born and bred a gentleman and besides being versed in the ways of gentlemen, is a man of sterling sense and has tried to conduct the affairs of State so as to maintain its high reputation, but Taylor is possessed of none of the attributes of statesmanship and is bound to prove an incubus on the State and a disgrace to the crowd that helped to put him in power. It is, indeed, a sad day for Kentucky, but we are not without hope, since the Legislature will likely correct the great wrong that has been perpetrated.

JUDGE TARVIN, of Covington, having criticised Gov. Bradley for allowing the Negro Coleman to be taken to Maysville where he was burned at the stake, a lively war of words is being fought between them, which is amusing if not edifying. The governor calls Tarvin a liar, a perjurer, and everything else but a gentleman, and he has challenged the executive to a duel with cannons planted at Covington and Frankfort, stipulating however that the militia must not be called out. The governor evinces surprise that Tarvin would fight a gentleman in anyway except with mud and Tarvin facetiously refers to his statements as "disingenuous." The two candidates for vice presidents on opposing tickets ought to repair to some dark spot and fight till one or the other is eliminated from the possibilities of a nomination.

In order not to influence the State board the court of appeals held up two important decisions till after the commission had determined on its course. One is that Injunction Toney had no right to force Brown inspectors into the polls, because the Brown followers were without legal status and did not represent a separate party but a faction of a party. The other was that tissue ballots are illegal and that their use in the Ohio county local option contest invalidated the election. Both of these decisions will cut a big figure in the final settlement of the election of the candidates for State offices should contests be prosecuted, and we are more than ever convinced that the democratic ticket is the legally elected one and will be so declared.

THE session of the Legislature which begins Jan. 2, is going to be a daisy. First it will show Senator Lindsay what should always be the fate of traitors by electing that unwavering and always-to-be-relied-on democrat, Joe C. S. Blackburn, his successor. Then it will give Judge Toney a large piece of its mind, if it does not impeach him, for his illegal and uncalled for interference with his little injunction in the Louisville election, and then the contest of Goebel and Beckham will likely be heard. A halcyon and vociferous time is therefore in any event, assured. The body is 32 democratic on joint ballot at least and what they will do to Lindsay, Toney and Taylor will be a plenty, if the facts are as stated.

GOEBEL received more votes by 27,807 than any democrat ever received for governor and 47,163 more than John Young Brown got when he was elected. His campaign and his vote, taking into consideration the bitter and revengeful fight made against him, are the most remarkable on record. His hold on the public heart is as strong as ever and democrats will not rest satisfied till the great wrong placed upon him is fully and completely corrected, by his induction into the office that the Intelligence of the State says he is entitled to.

JAMES MARET announces in the last issue of the Mt. Vernon Signal that he had sold it to S. C. Franklin, who in turn had sold it to Edgar S. Albright, who will continue its publication. The announcement is both a surprise and a regret to us, as we had not heard of Mr. Maret's intention, although we see him nearly every day. He has made a mighty good paper out of the Signal, which we are glad to know will still be in capable hands. Mr. Albright is a lawyer and a school teacher, and is a young man of much promise.

THE Owensboro Messenger says that Senator Goebel will be governed entirely by the party in making a contest before the Legislature, feeling that he has done as much as he should to get the office to which he is rightfully entitled, until he receives an expression from it. The party wants him to make the contest and we hope the State Committee in their meeting Thursday will so decide.

It is said that the republicans are trying to seduce the Brownies in the Legislature by promising to elect either Brown or P. Watt Hardin to the Senate, if they will unite with them. But as they will take 17 Brownies to secure the deal, it will be seen how utterly absurd the proposition is.

Senator Goebel will make several speeches for Gayle in the 7th.

WE regret exceedingly to learn from to-day's Advocate that the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Giovannoli died Sunday. The little fellow was named for his father, to whom and his young wife, our sincere sympathies are extended.

THE assumed solicitude over the future of the democratic party by those two arch traitors, W. C. P. Breckinridge and Richard W. Knott, is enough to make even the stoical Bill Owens catchinate.

GOV. BRADLEY has not always done as we would have him do, but he has tried to do his best, angels could do no more, and he will retire to private life to day with plaudits and praise.

BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

Government bonds were quoted higher last week than ever before.

Fire at Augusta, Ga., destroyed property worth upward of $1,000,000.

Clarence Williams, colored, was hung at Paris yesterday for the murder of his sweetheart. He was anxious to have the job over and asked the sheriff to "do him up" early as he wanted to eat breakfast in hell. His neck was broken by the fall.

After the Negro Coleman had been burned to death by the fiendish mob at Maysville for rape and murder, boys and men fought for pieces of his body. A 14-year-old boy got an ear; others got toes, fingers, teeth, &c., till hardly enough of the poor creature was left to bury. Those who could not get parts of the body contented themselves with pieces of rope, wire, chunks of charred railroad ties and everything that figured in the horrible affair.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

V. G. Logan, of Somerset, and Miss Mary B. Schoelling, of Lebanon, were married last week.

A. B. Siler and Miss Ollie Britton will be married at Mrs. Ella Britton's in the East End tomorrow.

William Jones, of Bucyrus, O., is suing for divorce because his wife has presented him with a fourth pair of twins.

Because her husband wouldn't join the church of her choice, Mrs. John Huntington, of Dayton, O., grieved herself into insanity.

A Kansas woman of 79 is suing her 81 year old husband for divorce because she can't break him of the filthy habit of chewing tobacco, after trying for over 50 years.

LAND AND STOCK.

One more bull calf for sale. J. W. Baughman.

F. Reid sold to J. C. Johnson 23 1,250 pound cattle at 44c.

Waverly Hamilton sold to W. W. Hays a bunch of hogs at 34c.

John C. Anderson bought in Casey a bunch of butcher stuff at 24 to 30c.

B. G. Fox bought a mare here yesterday for $90 and of A. J. Hayden a horse for $50.

G. A. Bowen, Campbellsville, sold to parties in the South 15 4-year-old mules at $100.

The Bowling Green Times reports the sales of 10 topy mules, 15+ hands high, for $950.

J. W. Baughman bought at Lebanon a Polled Angus cow of fine breeding at a fancy price.

FOR SALE—Jersey cow, will be fresh in January, third calf; price $50. W. B. McKinney.

J. B. Green has rented the John C. Hill farm near Maywood for $150 and moved from the Crab Orchard section.

The Richmond Register reports the sales of fat hogs at 34c, butcher cattle at 24 to 34c and corn in the field at $2.

E. E. Patterson sold to E. P. Woods 31 shoats at 3c. Beazley Bros. sold to same 14 at same and Mark Hardie at same.

William Cordier sold to John W. Holmes a bunch of hogs at 34 to 4c, one of which was a sow that weighed 680 pounds.

Clay Mullins has bought 7,000 turkeys this year at 6 cents a pound. They are selling at 5 cents now.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

J. F. Cook sold to Sweeney a bunch of 80-pound shoats at 3c and a bunch of 100-pounders to Fox & Lawson at same. He also sold a fat cow at 3c.

H. W. Curry, of Eaton, O., will be at Fox's stable in Danville next Monday, court day, to buy two car-loads of horse and mule colts. Also a few yearling mules.

W. J. Sparks & Co. bought of W. R. Dillon 1,200 acres of land on Rockcastle river for a fancy price. John Pegg has sold a good deal of corn at $2 in the field.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

ESTRAY.—Yearling steer weighing 600 to 800, supposed to be ear marked under bit in each ear, and a steer weighing 1,100 to 1,200. Missing two or three weeks. Reward. G. S. Shelby, Shelby City.

J. F. Cook, who cried the sale, tells us the 203-acre farm of Sam Cochran brought $1,830 and the home place of 37 acres $1,155. Horses brought $18 to $40; cows $25 to $31; corn $1.95; hogs 3.40.

The English government has placed another order in the United States for 10,000 mules for the Transvaal war. The first order about a month ago for 8,000 caused a marked advance in mules and this second order the mule feeders are expecting will bring an advance of at least $10 a head.

COURT DAY.—There were only about 75 cattle on the market yesterday, which was a close rainy day, and most of them sold, 4c being about the highest price. Wilkinson & Allen sold to J. G. Livingston 20 plain two year-old cattle at $31; a bunch of calves brought $23.75; E. P. Woods bought of H. C. Bottom 10 extra good calves at $23.50 and sold them immediately at $24. No butcher stock was offered. A few heifers sold at 34c. There was considerable activity in the mule market. B. G. Fox bought a number at $75 to $100 and R. L. Hubble and S. J. Embry some at $60 to $100. Horses were dull.

Turkeys, Turkeys.

Will say a few days longer at 5 cents. Don't wait any more after Thursday the 14th. The markets are low and in bad shape, so I urge all who want to sell to get their stock in. I assure you I am paying more than the market justifies. J. K. CHRISTIAN.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - DEC. 12, 1899

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER.

THE best materials combined with care, skill and accuracy insure good results. No other methods are ever used in our prescription work. Penny Drug Store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

BYNUM CARTER, of Rowland, continues very ill.

MR. M. C. WILLIAMS went to Louisville Friday.

MR. ROWAN SAUFLEY is clerking at Penny's drug store.

MRS. BETTIE COBB MCKINNEY has returned from Louisville.

MR. T. C. RANKIN will leave for Numan, Ga., this week with a lot of mules.

MRS. ALICE YANTIS, of Hustonville, is here visiting relatives.—Somerset P. H. Journal.

MRS. E. B. STOVER, of Knoxville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Hopper.

FIREMAN DICK HAMPTON, of Livingston, spent several days with his mother here.

COUNTY CLERK J. B. NICHOLS and Attorney J. W. Rawlings, of Danville, were here yesterday.

T. J. CURTIS, one of Somerset's good citizens, was here yesterday with his father, William Curtis.

PROF. C. R. OGG, principal of the Middleburg Academy, was here Saturday to attend the teachers' meeting.

MISSSES HELEN HOCKER and Maybelle Drye, of Hustonville, spent several days with Miss Lucille Cooper.

MR. J. J. McROBERTS has rented Mr. A. A. McKinney's property and will go to housekeeping after Christmas.

MRS. LUCY ST. CLAIR suffered an accident the other day that has confined her since, though she is not seriously hurt.

MRS. MARY J. OWSLEY, who is 85, suffered a stroke of paralysis and is in a critical condition, at her daughter's, Mrs. Mattie Withers.

A WEST END gentleman, who was here yesterday, ordered the I. J. sent to him beginning Jan. 1st, at which time he will be a Benedict.

MR. THOMAS PHELPS, wife and daughter, Miss Minna Park Phelps, of Richmond, came down Saturday to see Mr. Richard Cobb, who had an attack of vertigo Friday.

JUDGE J. S. ROBINSON, who was here from Lancaster yesterday, is preparing to go to Columbus, Ga., with his wife to spend the winter and ordered his I. J. sent there.

MR. JAMES MARET was here yesterday and said that for the present he will devote his entire time to the telephone business. An exchange in Mt. Vernon first receive his attention.

MISS RACHEL ALLISON and Mrs. E. R. Spotswood returned Saturday evening from Chicago. They have been absent since early autumn and had a very pleasant visit to friends.—Lexington Leader.

MR. JOE H. ROUT spent several days with his son, John B. Rout, of Hustonville, and killed his porkers for him. The latter who had several fingers mangled some time ago is doing as well as could be expected.

MR. W. T. TUCKER spent several days of last week with R. N. Wathen, of Lebanon. The latter is an extensive Hereford cattle breeder and Mr. Tucker also has a dozen of fine ones of that breed, which he thinks a great deal of. JACK, the bright little son of W. E. Perkins, of Crab Orchard, was reported dead here yesterday morning, but later reports brought the good news that he was not. He has been down 25 days with typhoid fever.

A REPORT comes that the daughters of Judge R. A. Burnside, of Lancaster, Misses Bertha and Mary, were hurt in a runaway yesterday, but the telephone line was in such a bad condition after last night's storm, we could not verify it.

JOHN W. BROWN, Esq., was down from Mt. Vernon Friday. He was not surprised at the decision of the election commissioners, who, he thinks, have no rights as a contesting board in the cases of the governor and lieutenant governor.

AFTER we had gone to press Friday we received a dispatch from Dr. W. T. Grissom at Columbia, that a boy had just arrived to bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Grissom. Mrs. Grissom is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Horton, of this county, and she and her husband are deaf mutes.

THE winter term of the Middleburg Academy will open Jan. 3. See ad. and write to Prof. C. R. Ogg for further particulars.

ALL accounts and notes not paid by Jan. 1 will be placed in an attorney's hands. Please protect yourself. B. K. Wearin & Son.

W. W. WITHERS will have a big Christmas opening about the 15th. Come in and make your selection before the goods are picked over.

SIX or eight rats took the train here yesterday for Frankfort, buying tickets as far as Junction City. The L. & N. doesn't seem to be as liberal as it was a week ago.

DEATH.—Mr. O. J. Crow received a telegram Friday stating that the widow of Mr. James P. Crow had died at Shepherdsville of consumption. She was Miss Allie Williams, was about 38 years old and a splendid Christian woman.

THE number of census enumerators for Kentucky is placed at 1,358, of which the 8th district will have 87. Supervisor John Bright will have his hands full, if he has to appoint them, but the right will be taken from him, no doubt.

THIS important item appears in the Corbin Campus: "Nig" Dudderar says he has at last found a girl who will let him go with her twice in succession." As "Nig" is from this county, his friends will be glad to hear of his improvement.

HUFFMAN.—Paul Hoffman, a well known German, died at his home near Ottenheim Friday night of dropsy and was buried there yesterday after Catholic services. A few years ago he was a conspicuous figure in many trials, but later had lived a quieter and better life. A wife and daughter survive.

THE Commercial Bank of Liberty is preparing to make an eclipsing showing when the present six months expires. On a capital stock of $20,000 they are loaning $65,000 in round numbers and still have more to go on good paper. Assistant Cashier A. P. Young told us that they could declare an eight per cent. dividend Jan. 1, if they desired.

THE old Napier Hotel at Liberty is to be made anew by Mr. John W. Whipp, whose wife bought it. It will be thoroughly renovated and refitted and Mr. Whipp will run it for all it is worth. John E. Sharpe has had charge of it for the past year, but laboring under the disadvantage of a poor building has not done well. W. D. Starg will continue to run the Exchange Hotel.

THE body of Mrs. Joseph O'Donnell, who died of dropsy and heart disease at Somerset, was brought to the Veranda Hotel here Saturday afternoon and interred in Buffalo cemetery Sunday morning. She was a daughter of W. P. Raines, of Livingston, and had been married about three years. No children were left, but a husband remains to feel the loss of a splendid, Christian wife. Mr. Raines attended the burial and was almost prostrated with grief.

A LONG RUN.—Saturday morning, G. P. Ramsey left his mare hitched to a buckboard and went into Hamilton's store at Rowland for something. The animal took fright and away she flew up the pike, through Main Street of Stanford and up the Hustonville pike as far as the Pink Cottage, when Mr. G. C. Keller caught her and drove her back to town. In her flight she passed several vehicles, but their drivers gave her the right of way and strange to say the race of three miles or more resulted in no damage to the vehicle or to anything else except to the animal, which had the thumps for some time.

CALL at the 5 and 10c store for Christmas trix. Nicest and cheapest.

LOST, on Hustonville pike, lap robe and gum apron. Leave at Greening's stable, Hustonville.

THE cost of insurance is only a few cents a week so go to Jesse D. Wearin and insure your property.

In order to reduce our stock, will sell hay at a very close price for the next few weeks. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE general desire of the democrats here yesterday was that Senator Goebel and his splendid ticket contest and fight 'em 'to the last ditch.'

THE wife of D. O. Gooch, of the Waynesburg section, died Friday of pneumonia and was buried Sunday. She was a daughter of Ben Floyd and besides a husband left several grown children.

THE reports of the three banks in Lincoln county, published on our 4th page, show they have loans and discounts to the aggregate amount of $457,325.70, a surplus of $43,688.57 and individual deposits amounting to $457,555.11.

THE Courier Journal tells this story on W. Randall Cook, one of the republican intimidators who went to Frankfort. He was in a 'shady' house, when it took fire and burned down. Cook escaped with part of his clothes and as the fire crackled sung out with evident grief: "There goes pap's pistol and $15 in money."

STANFORD is to have another clothing store. Messrs. J. F. Cummins and Forrest McClary have bought the clothing part of Severance & Sons' stock and will add largely to it. They have rented one of Mrs. M. J. Miller's store rooms and tell us they will carry only first class goods. Both are popular with the trading public and will doubtless do well.

SHERIFF SEARGENT, of Letcher county, with three deputies, arrived here Sunday morning with John Fuggett, who got two years for grand larceny, Will Banks, three years for forgery, and Henry Smith, eight years for killing Silas Day. The latter got a new trial and was left here for safekeeping, while the officers took the others to Frankfort on the noon train. In coming here they first traveled 49 miles horseback over bad roads to Norton, Va., where they take the L. & N.

THE postoffice at McKinney is the cutest little one in the county and Postmaster Moses Coffey is one of the cleverest of officials. The little room is nicely carpeted, has a modern mail cabinet and its other furnishings are up-to-date. A great deal of business is done there as there are a number of important star-routes that take their start there. "I have to hustle Tuesdays and Fridays when the INTERIOR JOURNALS' big mail comes in and until almost every paper is gone I am busy," said he. "Our people are great readers and they seem to be especially fond of reading the I. J.," he added. Mr. Coffey is assisted in his office by his handsome daughter.

WHILE passing through Middleburg the other day the I. J. representative called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McD. Royalty, when the latter, who is a most excellent subscriber, went after her pocketbook and brought out shining shakels for him. "That's enough of that democratic paper," said the husband, "four papers come to this house and they are all democratic and I'll begin cutting them off by stopping yours." The good wife, who had been listening patiently, arose and with a firm look presented her side of the case. "Listen to no such foolishness," said she, "I pay for that paper and am going to have it. Send it along till I tell you to stop. Mr. Royalty is almost as fond of reading it as I am, but he is too strong a republican to want you to know that he reads it at all." The I. J. man took Mrs. R.'s advice and left the clever old pair arguing on the subject, which was no doubt of short duration as they enjoy the reputation of being the happiest old couple in the good state of Casey.

THE Louisville Commercial of Friday devotes a couple of columns to the bastardy suit brought by Miss Jennie Givens, of this county, against William North, of Mt. Salem. According to the woman's story North seduced her under promise of marriage and when the critical time came sent her to Louisville in charge of a Hustonville physician. The child was born July 26 and was immediately taken to a foundling institute, where, it is claimed, it died shortly afterwards. Miss Givens was put under the care of Dr. A. S. Boyd, who attended her and paid all her bills. The plaintiff declares that the child is not dead, but has been spirited away to render the bastardy proceedings null and void. If it can not be produced her case will fail and she will have other remedies at law. The present suit does not come up till next month and Mr. North, it is said, was in Louisville last week to secure legal assistance. Since she has been in Louisville Miss Givens has gone by the name of Mrs. Green. We learn that North will charge that an effort is made to blackmail him and will defend the suit on that ground.

WE are opening an immense line of Holiday goods. Warren & Shanks.

BOYS, our patent leather shoes, stylish ties and dress shirts, will nerve you up to doing your duty when the prettiest girl in the room gets under the mistletoe. John P. Jones.

SOUSE.—The first souse we have enjoyed since we left old Virginia was given us by Mr. Bedell Chancellor, who makes it just like he used to in the mother State. There is nothing better when thus prepared.

SPILLMAN RIGGS is one of the most versatile men on the lecture platform. He is a fine vocalist and a whistler and in addition to his imitable lecture gives samples of his wonderful powers. Be sure to see him at Walton's Opera House, Dec. 20th.

It poured down rain all day yesterday, but a good many people came to court and stood around in the mud and slush like they enjoyed it. A heavy wind prevailed all night, which continues this morning, with the temperature rapidly going down.

W. A. HAIL, executor, sold the residence of his late father, John M. Hail, yesterday at auction and he and Geo. S. Carpenter bought it for $1,750. The 24 shares of Lincoln County National Bank sold at $110.50, T. D. Newland getting one and J. S. Owsley, Jr., the remainder.

THE Hugh Seargent farm near Walnut Flat consisting of about 200 acres was sold by Commissioner R. C. Warren yesterday at $27, to J. S. Hocker for the plaintiffs, the First National Bank, the Lincoln County National and S. H. Shanks, who have about an equal interest in the debt of a little over $6,000.

THE will of Mrs. Mary F. Givens was probated in the county court yesterday and W. P. Givens, named as executor, qualified without surety as directed. The assessment of Mrs. T. A. Rice was reduced $10,000, as she is a non resident. Other lists were reduced small amounts for various reasons.

THE SOUTHERN EXTENSION.—Capt. Joel Mable and his corps of nine men arrived here Saturday after having completed the survey of the line from Burgin via Danville to its intersection with another via Lancaster at the head of Line creek. He had orders to remain here till he completed the maps and profiles and had rented Miss Lacie Beazley's cottage to do the work in, but yesterday telegraphic orders were received countermanding the former order and telling Capt. Mable to bring his corps to New Market, Tenn., where the company is pushing to complete a branch by Christmas. The party left last night and the captain tells us that the work ordered to be done here will be executed there, with no delay by reason of the change of base. He further tells us that he found a very practical and satisfactory line on the Danville and Stanford route and is much pleased with it, since it is better than he had thought from a bird's eye survey of the country. Three short tunnels and only two bridges of any consequence will be necessary, the latter over Brush Creek and Hanging Fork. He has not seen the profile of the other line, but those who are acquainted with both routes say that the one this way is the cheapest and shortest. If the road is built, which now seems pretty certain, we are going to get it, but even this cheering prospect has its drawbacks. Our Lancaster friends will be in the lurch and we will grieve to behold their grief.

WANTED, WEANLING Mule & Horse Colts AND FILLIES ALSO.

I will be at the Stables in Stanford on Wednesday, Dec. 20th, to buy a car-load. Bring them to town. H. W. CURRY, Eaton, O.

COTTAGE FOR SALE.

I would like to sell privately my cottage on Lancaster Street, in Stanford, containing six rooms, kitchen, coal house, cistern, and garden. Call on or address

MRS. D. E. BRONAUH, Stanford.

McKINNEY.

Mrs. W. H. Hughes died Monday morning, leaving a babe only a week old. She was a daughter of "Uncle" Jerry Davis and had been married a little less than a year.

A little son of William Eason was carrying an axe last Friday, when he stumbled and fell, cutting off one finger and almost severing two others at, and near, the middle joints.

E. D. Kennedy, who has been suffering with appendicitis for more than two weeks, is improving. Dr. Grider, the attending physician, thinks his condition favorable to recovery. Reuben Givens, who has been at home from his duties in the South for a few days, will leave for his work again today, Tuesday. Ben Simmons, of near Danville, was here again Sunday, calling upon one of McKinney's fair ladies. The frequency of these calls may mean more than mere friendship.

Rev. J. Wendall Blackburn, a cousin of the famous Joe, was the guest of Rev. W. R. Davidson and J. H. Vanhook Thursday and Friday. The two divines left at noon, Friday, for Eubanks, where they will hold a series of services in the Baptist church. Rev. T. H. Coleman preached Saturday and Sunday mornings in the Baptist church here and in the afternoon of each day at Mt. Salem.

Humanity sickens and revolts at the inhumanity and horrible cruelty of that Maysville mob. The fendishness of their conduct would have done credit, in point of savagery, to the lowest type of cannibalism. Horrible as was the crime of their defenseless victim, it pales into a petty offense when compared with the indescribable cruelty and crime of the mob. Dick Coleman's crime merited death, but no statute of our government justifies the burning of any man at the stake. Coleman was in the hands of the law and to him, doubtless, would soon have been meted out justice, with honor to the courts and satisfaction to the statute, he had violated.

Mrs. Arthusa Estes is visiting her parents in Somerset. Misses Eliza and Maude Blankenship, of Kingsville, will visit Miss Fronia Montgomery and other friends here this week. Misses Ware and Bonta, of Danville, who have been visiting Miss Florence Tanner, have returned home. W. C. Bryant, wife and daughter, Miss Ada, are off for New York, and will probably not return until after Christmas. Mr. Vandever is holding down the work at the depot during Mr. Bryant's absence. Miss Genia Ware has returned home after several days visiting of friends elsewhere. Dr. Frank Grider had the pleasure of a visit from his aged father, Robert A., of Yocum, Russell county, last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKinney returned Sunday afternoon from a 20 days' visit to friends and relatives in Texas.

Our town was saddened last Saturday morning by the reception of a telegram announcing the death at Shepherdsville of Mrs. Ollie Crow, widow of the late J. P. Crow, who, a few years ago, was a prominent business man of this place. Mrs. Crow had been in poor health for several months past, being a victim of that dreaded disease, consumption, to which her frail constitution at last yielded. She was a good woman, kind and obliging neighbor and a most loving and forbearing mother. She was buried at Shepherdsville, the home of her girlhood, leaving two children, Carroll and Mary, about 17 and 12 years old respectively, to mourn her loss and to fight the battles of life without the tender cares of either father or mother. Mary is in the Masons' Widows' and Orphans' Home in Louisville.

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometime ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25 cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—THOMAS C. BOWER, Glenwood, O. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

During the last 200 years England has spent over $6,000,000,000 in war, which still means a payment of over $100,000,000 a year in interest on debt. But the naval wars of the future will be far more expensive than the land wars of the past.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, ss. FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & CO., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARRH that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 16th day of December, A. D. 1899.

HOUSES OF REFORM.—W. P. Walton, one of the competent commissioners of the Houses of Reform, publishes a two-page account of the recent opening of that institution, with handsome illustrations showing that those who had charge of the matter certainly did their work well, as the buildings and surroundings are assuredly beautiful and substantial. The people of Kentucky have reason to be thankful that the State will in the future carry out the correction of her juvenile culprits in a humane, christian manner, and instead of making hardened criminals of them, attempt to reconstruct their characters and mould them into good and useful men and women. The prevention of crime is of vastly greater import than its correction; and this institution undoubtedly will be a potent aid in redeeming youthful offenders from paths of error and turning their steps into honorable and useful ways.—Lebanon Falcon.

A SURE CURE FOR COUGHS.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS' CONSTANT USE WITHOUT A FAILURE.

The first indication of cough is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

A gold mine may be used as a simile for great wealth, but what does it amount to compared with a copper mine? There's the Calumet and Hecla, which has just paid a dividend of $2,000,000 to its stockholders, making $10,000,000 during the present year, or just an even 400 per cent. on a capital of $2,500,000.

BRAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the result in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life. Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed."
